Costume Dance Plans Take Shape Rapidly; More Of Them Told

Announcements as to the plans for the annual costume ball of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association to be held next Saturday night came thick and fast this morning and made it evident that most of the arrangements for the gala affair have been completed, even to the purchasing of prizes for the winners with the best costumes, but the committee is not yet telling what those prizes are to be.

Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday evening and the grand march, during which the judges will make their selection of winners of the costume prizes will start at 10:30. Mrs. F. L. Hoogs and Caleb Burns are two of the judges and the third will be announced soon. Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Humphrey will lead the march. Music will be furnished by the Mary Hoffman orchestra.

Already the floor managers have been announced, the dance committee having been selected previously, and the work of decoration and all other details have been assigned. The committee expects the ball to be easily the largest social affair of the year and the public is looking forward to it as sure to be the jolliest.

Silver Anniversary And Xmas Combined

On November 25, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Linton were guests of honor at a silver anniversary surprise dinner party as was reported in Maui News shortly afterward. The surprise was on the guests on that occasion but just one month after, the tables were turned and Mr. and Mrs. Linton were the ones to be surprised. They were the recipients of a pair of beautiful silver candle sticks and with it was a card with the names of the donors, all of the dinner guests of just one month before Christmas.

The gift thus served the double purpose of a cherished anniversary remembrance and a most acceptable Christmas gift.

JAPANESE DISAGREE

(Associated Press)
HONOLULU, Dec. 26—The parents association which was formed among the parents of pupils attending 13 Japanese language schools has dissolved. It is believed that the action was taken as a result of inability to agree upon the question of whether legal action in the form of a test case should be taken to prevent the putting into operation of the regulation applying to language schools.
